niphan.

Mr. Weninger was born April 6, 1932. He was disabled.

Mr. Weninger lived with his family until he was 29 years of age. At that time his parents became ill and were unable to care for him. Ripley County Judge Willie Dodd then contacted Mrs. Mary Hearn and she cared for Mr. Leo until her health, too, became poor. In 1974 he went to live with Bob and Christine Turner and family. He resided with them until his health deteriorated and the family became unable to care for him. He was moved to the Colonial Home Assisted Living in Doniphan and later, as his condition worsened, was transferred to the Current River Nurs-

He enjoyed his time with the Turner family. Mrs. Turner recalled him saying he "raised the Turner boys." Mr. Weninger was proud that his daily job was to bring in the mail. He loved the outdoors and could name every
