

Amnesty Weeks

The library may offer amnesty week up to two times per year. The first week may be prior to summer reading and the second may be in December. This gives patrons an opportunity to clear their records in order for adults and children to have a greater opportunity to participate in summer reading. The December date allows patrons the ability to clear records prior to tax season. The dates of the amnesty weeks as described previously at the discretion of the library director.