He was born in Benton Harbor, Mich. on Sept. 19, 1950. Dale graduated from Qulin High School in 1969. He joined the Army in 1970 and served his country honorably while stationed in Hawaii. He lived in several states throughout his life but enjoyed his time in Texas most before settling down in Missouri. He was a true fisherman, enjoyed his boats, loved racing his race cars, but his favorite past time was spent scuba diving in Cozumel, Mexico. He was a hardworking man and a good friend to all that knew him. He would talk to anyone, he never met a stranger. When he smiled you could see his eyes light up with happiness.
